In order to be considered for a payment plan, payment deferment, or modification of your rental agreement, you must provide written documentation of your loss of income due to COVID-19, coronavirus, and/or the associated impacts of the pandemic. Submittal of such documentation does not guarantee any payment plan, payment deferment, or modification of your rental agreement. Any action is subject to property owner approval and sole discretion and is not effective until an amendment to your rental agreement is signed by all parties.
